CINCINNATI, O, Wednesday, 2 P. M.

ED. COURIER: —

Dear Sir: As you and your readers probably feel considerable interest in the welfare of the 78th Regiment, I will send you a few lines. We arrived in this city at 10 A. M. to-day, and we are embarked in the two steamers "Tecumseh," and "Neptune," and will shortly be on our way to Paducah. All along the way we were enthusiastically cheered and welcomed. The boys are in fine spirits, and are going to meet the stern realities of war, joyfully and contentedly, and you may expect to hear a good account of the "crack regiment." More anon.

Yours, &c.

W. F. A.

Company G, 78th O. Reg't.
