Obituary for Thomas S. Armstrong

The Daily Courier
REV. THOMAS S. ARMSTRONG ENTERS INTO REST AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

WAS VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR.

And Had Been Minister of Methodist Episcopal Church Since 1873—In Survived by Two Children.

Rev. Thomas S. Armstrong died at his home in the Wayne district of Chicago, at 8:45 o'clock, Thursday evening. Death was caused by a complication of diseases incident to advanced age and followed a long illness. The Rev. Mr. Armstrong was a prominent minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was one of the best known pastors in this section of the state. He was born in Franklin Township, wayne county, Ohio, May 22, 1883. The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Arm- strong, pioneer ministers of Lake county.

When the civil war broke out Mr. Armstrong was a young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment.

He was a native of the valley of the Potomac and was a soldier in the Civil War. When the war broke out Mr. Armstrong was a young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment.

After recovering his health the young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was a native of the valley of the Potomac and was a soldier in the Civil War. When the war broke out Mr. Armstrong was a young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment.

After recovering his health the young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment.

After recovering his health the young soldier in the United States army and served with the 5th Ohio regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment. He was in command of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1862 as the second lieutenant of Company I of that regiment.
The Daily Courier

September 17, 1909

Aged Minister Answers Call

Rev. Thomas S. Armstrong Enters Into Rest After Long Illness.

Was Veteran of Civil War And Had Been Minister of Methodist Episcopal Church Since 1873—Is Survived By Two Children

Rev. Thomas S. Armstrong died at his home in the Wayne flats on Eighth street at 6:45 o’clock, Thursday evening. Death was caused by a complication of diseases incident to advanced age, and followed a long illness.

The Rev. Mr. Armstrong was a superannuated minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was one of the best known pastors in this section of the state. He was born in Franklin township, Licking county, June 23, 1835. The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong, pioneer residents of Licking county.

When civil war broke out Mr. Armstrong enlisted in the 78th regiment O.V.I. which was mustered at Fultonham. After serving in the regiment for a year, he was sent home being given an honorable discharge on account of illness.

After recovering his health the young soldier assisted in the organizing of the 122nd regiment and returned to the front in 1863 as the second lieutenant of Company I, of that regiment. He was unfortunate in being captured and served twenty-two months in the confederate prisons at Macon, Ga., Charleston, S.C., and Libby prison, at Richmond, Va. At the close of the war, Mr. Armstrong received his honorable discharge, and located at Clinton, Ill., where he was engaged in teaching in the public schools having given up that vocation when he entered the services of his country.

After spending several years in the west he prepared himself for the ministry and in the year 1873 entered the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church and was ordained as a minister of that faith. With the exception of one year which he spent at the Boston University school of theology he continued to occupy various charges until 1897. In this year, by his own request he took a superannuated relation with the conference in order to give his children an opportunity to attend at Ohio Wesleyan university.

Although the Rev. Mr. Armstrong had lived in the city but a short time, coming her from Newark, he had made many close personal friends, who will be pained to learn of his demise. Besides a daughter, Miss May Armstrong, who is a teacher in the High school, he is survived by one son, Fred Armstrong, of Chicago, Ill., three sisters and two brothers.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Grace church at 2 o’clock. Sunday afternoon. The Rev. A.M. Courtenay officiating, and interment will be made in Woodlawn cemetery. The deceased’s wife died May 19, 1882. In 1905 he removed to Newark where he made his home with a daughter, Mrs. R.E. Beard, until her death in 1908.