Dear Editor:

Bob's letter is short this time, but anon I think you will get one giving the particulars. He said he would write me a long one the next Sunday. Bob is entitled to considerable honor from the people of Old Muskingum. He was in the Mexican War two years, and was in the battle of Buena Vista; and over one year ago he was in the "masterly advance on Washington," as Artemus Ward says, in the First Ohio, under Colonel McCook. I tell you I should ~~and~~ you "exceeding great," could you hear him relate his experience.

I S. ARMSTRONG.

Dear Editor:

Bob's letter is short this time, but anon I think you will get one giving the particulars. He said he would write me a long one the next Sunday. Bob is entitled to considerable honor from the people of Old Muskingum. He was in the Mexican War two years and was in the battle of Buena Vista; and over one year ago he was in the "masterly advance on Washington," as Artemus Ward says, in the First Ohio under Colonel McCook. I tell you it would amaze you "exceeding great," could you hear him relate his experiences.
