Dear Brother

I rec'd your very welcome letter on the 14. was well pleased to hear from you. I am still teaching have eighteen days more and then I shall go home.

If I can not get a school any place else I will teach here i.e. if I teach at all Since I rec'd yours I have nearly concluded to attend school the coming Spring and summer at Lebanon and go to Illinois next winter with you and teach.

I have written to A. Hollbrook the principal of the school for information concerning it but have not had time to receive an answer, please send me what you know.

about it and make inquiry
I send me your advice and views on the subject.

I was glad to hear of the step you have taken and can only wish you the object of your inquiry
This is an important period in your history and I hope ere this reaches its destination that you shall have found the Pearl of great price —

I have to be short this time to send this by today's mail so you can get it this week

Please send me your views in full

From your affectionate
Brother W. S. Armstrong
