THE PROCLAMATION.

"I order and declare that all persons held as slaves in the said designated States and parts of States are and hereafter shall be freeand I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence."—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Saint Patrick, slave to Milcho of the herds
Of Ballymena, sleeping, heard these words:
"Arise and flee
Out from the land of bondage and be free!"

Glad as a soul in pain, who hears from heaven
The angels singing of his sins forgiven,
And, wondering, sees

~~His prison opening to their golden keys,~~

He rose a man who laid him down a slave,
Shook from his locks the ashes of the grave,
And outward trod
Into the glorious liberty of God.

He cast the symbols of his shame away,
And passing where the sleeping Milcho lay,
Though back and limb
Smarted with wrong, he prayed, "God pardon him!"

So went he forth, but in God's time he came
To light on Uilline's hills a holy flame;
And, dying, gave
The land a saint that lost him as a slave.

O dark, sad millions, patiently and dumb
Waiting for God, your hour, at last, has come,
And freedom's song
Breaks the long silence of your night of wrong!

Arise and flee! shake off the vile restraint
Of ages! but, like Ballymena's saint,
The oppressor spare,
Heap only on his head the coals of prayer!

Go forth, like him! like him, return again,
To bless the land whereon in bitter pain
Ye toiled at first,

And heal with freedom what your slavery cursed!

J. G. WHITTIER.

From the 122d Regiment.

WINCHESTER, FREDERICK, Co, VA. }
January 23d, 1863. }

EDITOR COURIER:—The 122d still occupies the heights west of Winchester. Rather a good place for winter quarters, and from the present indications we will winter in our tents upon the hill.

Our position has some advantages and a great many disadvantages. We had hoped that winter would find us nicely ensconced in Martinsburg, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, when we found that we were not to be in active service.

On the 21st, and the night before, we had quite a snow storm which covered the ground with snow. No doubt this is the same you have lately had in Ohio, covering the ground nearly a foot deep. But I think the depth here would not exceed three inches. It melted very fast and formed slush, making it extremely difficult for pedestrians to make their way along the streets, but still we could occasionally hear the merry jingle of sleigh bells. Winchester would be a fine place for sleighing as the streets are nearly level, but rather narrow, and the turnpikes leading out of it are splendid.

We are all ready and willing to be paid off. We are expecting to receive it soon, too. We don't think there is a single man in the regiment who would have the least objections to being paid, though we may be mistaken.—We think not.

We will soon have light bread issued to us instead of "hard tack." Our oven for baking it is situated in the southern part of town. Its dimensions are 14 feet by 12. It is built of brick. It will bake about 4 to 500 loaves at once. It takes three men to bake for the 122d and 110th regiments. So you see we will have plenty to fill our pantries. We have one of considerable size in our company.—We call it "Our Pantry."

For the benefit of the friends of the 122d we can assure them that all boxes, packages, &c. addressed to members of the regiment, will arrive safely. For when they arrive at Martinsburg they will be brought through to this place by teams, and wagons so Colonel Ball assures us and if you have them ready send them on. The weather here is not nearly so severe as it is in Ohio. We are not so far south as to produce such change. The health of our regiment is very good, though we have some sick. The measles has been our worst enemy.

Respectfully yours,

T. S. A.
