Brownsville, O.

October 10th 1860

Frank,

I am down here fixing for commencing to teach school next Monday. And I seize this opportunity to make known to you that I could not possibly help disappointing you. I am sorry, but it can not be helped now. You know it rained, at least, it did here I can't come next Sunday as I shall move then, I don't want to disappoint you next time so you must write to me and tell me when to come. I want you to give me all the news I am tolerably well. I hope you are well. Well I must close for the present I don't know when I shall board this winter,

When you write in the future
write to Brownsville, C. as that shall be my future post Office

My respects to all inquiring friends
From your sincere friend

I want you to give me all the news. I am tolerably well. I hope you are well. Well I must close for the present. I don't know where I shall board this winter.

When you write me in the future, write to Brownsville, O as that shall be my future post office. My respects to all inquiring friends,

From your sincere friend.
