At Home, Friday morn Friend Bob. While I am writing to Thomas I will send you a line. I left the Union (dont understand that I have succeeded but only left Norwich and come home) last Monday and I am now at home lonesome and almost disconsolate. I heard on Saturday eve that I was appointed a Sergt. in Gebhardt's Co and I have had the Blues ever since Well I hope you are enjoying yourself and ~~the~~ rest of the Boys also.

I am able to walk around and I shall be in camp as soon as possible as I have lost enough by being out. Now Bob write me a good long letter soon

Mr Robt. Hanson

Yours truly
W. F. Armstrong

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S TALES OF A GRANDFATHER.
UNIFORM WITH THE HOUSEHOLD WAVERLEY.

MESSRS. TICKNOR & FIELDS

Are now publishing, uniform with their well-known edition of the Waverley Novels,

TALES OF A GRANDFATHER,

BY SIR WALTER SCOTT

To be completed in Six Volumes, 16mo. At 75 cents per Volume.

ILLUSTRATED WITH FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS.

Volumes 1 and 2 were published on Saturday, November 2d.
3 and 4 " " " " 16th.
5 and 6 will appear on " " 30th.]

Completing the whole series in one month.

This admirable historical work is peculiarly interesting at the present time, as it gives a most graphic account of the wars between England and Scotland, setting all the most picturesque and prominent points in that great civil contest. To the young American reader, no series of tales could at this crisis in the history of the United States be of greater moment. BRUCE, WALLACE, DOUGLAS, DARNLEY, QUEEN-MARY, and JAMES, are names full of historical interest, and the various battles which Sir Walter has described form striking features for every youthful student.

This Household Edition of one of Sir Walter Scott's best known works will commend itself to all who admire his genius.

The volumes will be sent post paid, to any address, on receipt of the price.
