Mr T. L. Armstrong,

Dear Sir

I send out Posters for the meeting on Saturday Night. Give them a wide circulation, and drum up the forces.

Edw. Mearns & May's Mearns will be on hand to make the very best of music. -

Can't a better house be obtained for the meeting? It should be in a church - Want the citizens help you to obtain one?

I saw Porter and your brother in night
before last, and they are at work like Major, Porter gets
his school this week
and goes right into recruiting.

Capt. Mansson's Comp any is full, and I have secured his services
till mind is full.

We have every encouragement.

Yours truly

J. J. Armstrong
