Dear Sir

I have just received a letter from Mr^r John W. Garden and he says he has made arrangements with the house of J. D. & C. Jones of Cincinnati, to take up his note, which I sent on to you by mail, and they are ready to settle it off when called on, and I wish you if you can with convenience, call on them for it, and send it on to me as before directed, and by so doing you will do me a great favor

~~Yours~~

I remain Yours &c

Jesse B. Greeny
