Dear Sir

Yours of 30 of Nov. 1830 has just come to hand which will of course account to you for my not writing sooner - I am unable to give you any information respecting Doct Earley, he was here at our conference but left here the same day conference broke he went from this place with Doct G. Talor to Pulaskia what has since become of him I cannot tell I understood during conference from some source that he expected to go down the state of Missisipi in some short time - I was with Doct Erley in July last in the state of Alabama I was much pleased with him for the acquaintance I had with him he seems both pious & zealous. I am sorry to hear otherwise - yours &c
