Mr Finley

Dear Brother

When I met you on Saturday I was going to Messrs Neff & Brothers store hoping to get a large order of books (which my sons makes here) as the foreman in the store informed me on Friday they were wanting a large quantity I showed Mr Neff my patterns but tho no fault was made either in price or quality, yet being a stranger & not known to them I did not succeed in getting any order from them which as it is of unusual consequence to me at this time to make some sales say about 150 dollars worth However objectionable I feel it to trouble you with worldly matters as I know no one else that is intimate with Mr Neff I hope you will excuse my requesting you to either introduce me or the business to Mr Neff to day if convenient & agreeable as they are about ordering the article soon I am ever your

Whatever terms will suit them as to time - it will be agreeable and will also take care thereof in Lyons if they have a few lines as to the receipt from you left at the printer's office tomorrow morning will oblige

Sincerely yours friend
Wm. L. Hooke

If Messrs. Peffer wishes to enquire of the articles we supply

Messrs. Tator & Brothers

Messrs. Spencer & Strong & Co.

Mr. James Robert St.

If you find it convenient to mention this to Mr. Spencer any time I shall feel obliged As I have sold him buttons but we are strangers still

My daughter has been confined to her bed as Dr. Plummer this week we could not attend the singing meeting
