Dear Sirley,
 I had hoped to have seen you at Portsmouth, but I was hindered, 1st by family affliction, until about the time your ~~meeting~~ in P. commenced, when my family got better, and on Saturday morning last, Bro. Hamline & I got ready & concluded that we would try to be with you by Sunday morning, but here again we were disappointed for altho' the boat advertised to start at 9 O.C. A. M. it did not start till between 11 & 12 O.C. and we knew that it would take the until after 12 to get to Portsmouth, we gave it up. Times in the City are good upon the whole - a glorious revival in Fulton, and in our charge we have considerable excitement more or less ~~excitement~~ converted every week. I hear from you every once in a while and it seems you will keep on in your literary career, until you write yourself into populosity!!

Have you done any thing in reference to our committee business at Augusta?
Will you do any thing? If so when?
Write & let me know. My love to sister Fairy, and Dr. Clarke's family & all my old friends. Bro. Orr is waiting for me and I must close. Write soon.

As ever yours

A. Eddy
