Rev. James B. Finley

Dear Brother,

We have thought, & said but little here, with respect to those who should be sent to us, as our Pastors, for the ensuing conference year, believing that God would direct, and being disposed to say to the Conference, send whom you will send.

We have understood however, that it would be agreeable to Brother Christie to continue here another year. I will therefore only take leave to say, that Brother Christie would be welcomed, as our Pastor. All well -

In Christian love

Your brother
O. Springer
