Dear Mrs. Finley
Pineville Aug. 4th 1842

I am sorry to learn of your feeble health, but hope the Lord will restore you soon. I write in haste to request you to drop a line to C. Elliott or myself, & let us know when it will suit you to meet with the Book Committee. We have some very important business to do before Con- vening fixing the salary of Agents &c & we wish the whole Comtee to be present. As ever bro. Finley.

I accept assurances of my love & best wishes for your health & happiness.
Affectionately

W. H. Chapman
