Per L.B. Fendley

Dr Sir, I saw a letter from you directed to my Brother and received by him last evening. From which I learn that you intend going out to Hancock Co to see your lands. You want to know if I have paid the tax on the land you bought of me. I answer no. I have written out to Mr Eliza Williams Esq. my Agent in Timothy to ascertain the amount of my Taxes. and he by mistake sent me the amount for last year and I had to write back for the amount for 1845. and send out the Receipt for 1844 which I had in my possession. As soon as I can find out the true amount I will immediately send out the money or if you see fit to pay it when you are out. I will repay it to you as soon as I see you. Yours

Ok. A.
