Which we are anxious to have your views on. Grandmother health I conceive to be as good as it has been for years. Deborah had left for Wagerstown. We received one yesterday a letter from him he states they are well and about fixed for living married and family are in usual health. we look for them both in so soon as the roads get anything like passable.

Grandfather we would be pleased to see you and hope the time is not far distant that our expectation will be realized. but we think about you and pray for you that God may preserve you by his Almighty arm. the health in this country is not very good the winter fever has been very prevalent and fatal. please excuse for the present that specimen as I am out of fix for writing entirely owing to my sugar engagements the snow at the present time is about 18 inches deep with a fine prospect for more as it is now snowing as fast as it will come. we and all unite in love to you please write so soon as you get this excuse haste and a bad pen and suffer me with sentiments of great respect and esteem subscribe myself your undutiful

Beloved Grandfather

I should have written before this time but did not know where to direct it to as you wanted me to write with the rest of the girls we will write soon but Charles wrote and said there was room off and I thought I would write a few lines our school is out we had an exhibition the last evening it was fine we intend to have another in the course of a week or two we were made exceedingly sorrow to hear of your bad cold you caught going up but hope you will soon recover we would all like to see you very much and hope the time will soon come when we shall have the privilege of seeing each other again with this I will close pray for your onworthy

Granddaughter
