Father Finley

Dear Sir

in my Husband's absence I received your letter and will answer it the best I can.

Mr. Miley left here for Chillicothe Monday last he had many urgent invitations to go. They have quite a gracious work going on in that place.

I deferred answering your letter until to day in consequence of Bishop Hamline's not arriving as was expected. The friends still look for him this evening. Bro Cox is still absent and can not tell the result of matters and thing in Columbus he has been absent the last two weeks.

The family all send their love to you

I remain Yours with much respect

Oliver B. Miley
