Dear Sir

I have made arrangements to go out to the Rock River Conference this fall & would be glad to receive from you such recommendation as you could give. I expect to receive a recommendation from our quarterly conference & from Brother Raper. I have also received the promise of Brother Hamline to give me all the aid he can. But as I have arranged my affairs to quit forever the practice of law I wish to secure a situation if possible & I know of no one who can aid me more efficiently than yourself. My business has been rapidly increasing & promises at present to be worth from one to two thousand dollars per year. I leave it in the hands of Mr Howard. We are well here generally & I believe all your friends

Rev J. B. Findlay.

With respect

Yours
J. S. Percott
