Dear Bro Finley

Since I came to this place I find that a clandestine remonstrance is sent up against Bro Mutchers being returned. I think I know as much about the circuit as any body (having travelled all over it two years) having an intimate acquaintance with almost every member and I think the circuit cannot under all the circumstances be so well served by any other Bro in conference for the present

I write this under a sense of duty seeing there are unfair advantages taken of the young man

Yours in Love
Rev. J. B. Finley
