Dear Sirs

West Springfield Nov. 1st 1846 Dear Grandfather I have had no news from you lately and having a few leisure moments I could not spend them more pleasingly than in addressing one who I respect & honour as a great since my last communication I have united in Matrimony with Miss Susan Parsons. I am well pleased with my change. She is a girl of strong mind reserved in her manner and remarkably devoid nothing vain or gaudy. She at present is at Father's we shall commence house keeping about 1st Inst I have got all ready. My prospects are quite flattering I think as regards business I think if I can get out of my present obligations I can do finely. Father's family are in usual health. Cousin David Stough is in our a visit his health is greatly improved.
Aunt & family are in usual health when you come through call at the shop I am as ever yours &c
