 Dr. King
 Sept. 30, 1814

I have tried to make a copy of your old friend Pety's son Psalm 35: 22 He had no all share no more a time as ever you had here My bodily health is as good as you ever knew it. I have God and that will do without economy what was in my mind in open my own Christian eyes - and you for the same!
 And for you for both to blame that I have never heard or seen from you this year?
 you by this time may suppose I am growing good toward you, but it is not for nothing - We have this day in Believing Conscience to have Camp meeting at Holmwood Sunday August 30th - That

Dr. of Jones / D. Jones that of

is the time when Bishop Allen will be alone when & where it would do me no little good to learn whether you are able to go to London than you were when formerly in this country.
However if you can only speak as loud as a common man it will be a gratification to hear you talk about heaven & hell.
I think you told me that you intended going down to Kerala to spend some time with your brother - I would offer you my company on the way but that you can be honoured with the Bishop's - you may get up the house - ~~now before~~ - behind on any plain you say, only come along & stop on your way at our Lantern meeting. I want to meet you & take your saddle-bags, & hang up your hat & hear you talk about you & religion.

I want to see sister Pindy and the little girl (I have forgotten her name) that used to be so afraid of me.
Remember me to Father Ellis & every body you think would be glad to hear of me. I was not where I May Grace, Peace & success attend you thro life, & may we share in all the crowns & palms of a better world thro Christ & pray for our sincere affectionate - David Young
