Dr Bro

I rec'd yours of the 10th Inst this morning & shall forward this as you request for return mail —

In answer to your first "Will you serve?" I answer no, you may know the reasons when we meet again. But you are not to infer that I do not highly appreciate the confidence & good will implied in your enquiry & application.

With regard to your second "Who would you recommend"? I defer you to a letter written by me 12th Inst. directed to bro J. M. Troubles who is hereby authurred to show you so much of that letter as bears directly on this subject, for there are parts of bro Goos letter intended to be confidential & private though I have no objection to your yourself seeing the whole of it.

The Lord bless & prosper you & yours & all my old friends I have not forgotten them.

From your old fast friend
