Rev^d James B. Finley

Dear Brother

This is to invite you to be present with us on the 3^d Saturday of this month when we intend to commence a two days meeting which we hope to protract. The people here are greatly desirous to see you and hear you face to face and I also would be highly gratified. If you can possibly come please write to me. If you should choose to come in the stage you can do so, if not we will send for you. I need help and there is no man I would prefer to yourself if you can come. Now Brother Finley let nothing but an impossibility prevent you from coming. I have much to write but will not write it with ink on paper hoping to see you face to face at our meeting. Please answer by the return mail.

Yours in the best of bonds

A. W. Masson
