At a meeting of the Trustees of Germantown M. h. a letter from Bro Brook was read in which certain propositions from you to the Trustees were presented in reference to your claim on the church, which the Trustees were not willing to accede to, but request me to say to you that they would pay the interest you are by your last year on the note to Teachers aid society and ~~and~~ send a new note to conf. clearing you from all liability of debt and for which you are responsible - provided you will give a relinquishment of all claims you have against the church which was your proposition if they would finish the M. h. This is being now accomplished. it will be completed in very short time, please write immediately

all well, the Lord bless Wm Finley

Yours in Christ
