Rev. J. B. Finley Dear Brother

After my best Respects to you permit me (while here on business from my Circuit) to ask a favour at your hands which is the following (viz) My son is in need of Blackstones ^{Commentary} ~~pleadings~~ and Kent's Commentary (Law Books) and I thought I could procure them for him in this place but find I cannot; and am informed I cannot get them nearer than your City and ^{know} no one there save yourself that I should = get I could trouble with the business save yourself I take the liberty to ask if you ^{if you} please to call and enquire at your Book store & write me what = they can be had and what they will cost and drop me a line (my address is Millersburg Holmes Co. @) & if he cannot get them before I will forward you the money and ask you to forward them by Stage
