Rev & Dear Brother,

You will pardon me for intruding upon yr time, while you are so deeply engaged in yr clerical duties. — I desire merely to say to you, that I am again candidate for the Office of G.S. and shall be pleased, if you can consistently give me your support, as well as use your influence in my behalf. — Many of the Brethren, who are and will be members of the Grand Division, will be present with you at Newark this week and will to whom you can speak on the subject, if you are unpledged to others, or deem me worthy.

Should Providence ever give me the opportunity, I shall with great cheerfulness reciprocate the favor.

Accept for yourself & family my kindest regards and believe me
Yrs fraternally
