Cincinnati Nov 9th 1848.

Dear Bro. Finley,

Bro. Guler is waiting in this city until Monday for a boat, and some letters which he is expecting. He desires from you any letter, instruction or advice which you may have prepared, or which you may feel willing to give.

I would join him in requesting all the aid from you which he can receive, as he needs to go well prepared. The South are very bitter, and if they can succeed in stopping us in our place they will try in others. The issue must be made somewhere and at some time, and for me I am perfectly willing, it should be met where they have tendered it.

Please write immediately in the care of the Book room.

Yours Truly
Rev. J. B. Finley
