Rev L Darr D. M.

G K Darr
1850

Your welcome, and highly edifying favor of the S^r Irish is before me. The said Christian Conference which it breathes, is like a Cup of Cold Water to a thirsty soul! — It has in a good degree dispelled the despondency which long rested on me, upon my heart and has determined me to taste the "Food" now more, relying upon the "God of Battles" and shall taste from time to time and upon all suitable occasions, shall present its potent truths to the brethren.

In view of the inclemency of the season, and of the condition of your health, I have concluded that it is my duty to forgo your proffered assistance until a more "convenient season"; when you can be in addition to other things, enjoy the genial Spring. — In view of this I have made a series of appointments in Clinton, Hagerstown, Ross Recovery, Fairfleece, Perry, Montgomery Counties, and shall set out on the 1st upon my last —

As soon as the weather & roads will admit, I shall if permitted, set you out and take you with me, upon some spare time days? — In the mean time may God continue to bless and sustain you.

It is somewhat disconcerting that at a moment when our hopes are revived and our cause is again appearing with vigor & life, to find new obstacles in our way — I allude to the suspension of the "Fountain." — So far as its present prospect is concerned it is a failure, and the suspension will be felt as such. — This has come upon us at a time when we least expected it, and if a remedy cannot be found, will dampen the ardor of many of our friends.

I have been endeavoring to influence Mr. L. Blunt to take hold of the paper again, and when I left him yesterday, he seemed favorably disposed. — If he does again take hold, and does it now, the will make it go and establish it firmly — A word of encouragement from you, will do great good, and if on the receipt of this you will write to him and give the assurance of your influence it will be a great spur to the whole, and will confer great power upon all the friends of the cause. — I trust you will find it convenient to do so.

The brethren of South Charleston in Blkst Co. are extremely desirous of receiving a visit from you at an early day, and should you find it convenient to go there, you will be a preserver, who streaks the "dry bones."

I shall bear him in this visit for my colleague etc. and in the mean time will advise you of my appointments and shall hope when from you occasionally I trust you will reply to this before I leave.

Yours truly & faithfully
Geo. W. Young
