James B. Dindalay Esqr
Dr Sir

Rev Sam Clayton told me today that he thot it highly probably that you would consent to come up and make us some Temperance speeches - for we are sadly in want of good speaking in our City, and as the Chairman of the Committee of management I have to request that you will at your earliest convenience come up and spend a week or two with us - If you can do so - with me immediately and I will ~~see~~ ~~see~~ see that your expenses are attended to

Respectfully Yours
Jacob O. Phisler
