My dear brother Finley! I know to well how it is to be pledged for a certain sum of money and being to feable to collect it. The Lord having blessed me especial and having heard my prayers in some earthly matters I feel it my duty though "I am als sine Kirchmans" to help you a little. May God bless you and support you and may we have for many years to come have the joy to hear the voice of our old Indian warrior. I dont know if you remember me. I shall not forget you and was much pleased to see your face once more (Nat. Mag.) We are still going on in the good war against the world and the Devil and we have, thank God, many proofs, that our labour has not been in vain. Pray for us. With high respect

Yours in Christ
Ludwig Jacoby
