Dear Bro Finley

I received your letter last evening and hasten this morning to answer it. I am glad that ^{you} recommended an arbitration - for I wish that matter attended to and over forever. I saw Bro Robinson last evening and he says that he will comply with your request and fill my appointment. I will with a great deal of pleasure go and hold your quarterly meeting for you at Etna on Granville circuit. Please tell Bro Hord that I received a letter from the Lutheran Standard office last evening informing me that they have agreed to the ^{proposition} of the committee and are going as soon as possible to strike a thousand copies and that I want him to write as soon as he can - for I want to hear from him

Your Bro in Christ
