Charlestown August 30th. - 1825

Dear Brother as the Conference is now over and a few leisure moments afforded me, I gladly devote them in writing to you. I should have written sooner but was always prevented by a press of business. The Conference closed its session about 12 o'clock this morning. we had great peace and harmony among the preachers. Bishop McKendree was with us in good health and good spirits and expects to go to the Kentucky conference.

I have also to attend there this will prevent me from visiting you at your next session which I greatly deprecate. I suppose you have heard of the late sustained in the death of the late last winter. This has prevented me being able to pay the money I loaned from you, you ought to have had it before this time but so it is, some times disappoint my best friends but not
