Dear Brother

We send the above articles which were bought by subscription there is enough velvet to be taken off the piece for brother Gibson, a coat & for a suit. and was my son there the same thing might be done for him but as he is gone I must let mine go for the benefit of the whole School, we have not such articles as we supposed would be really necessary, should you at any time want any articles for the use of the Mission it will give me pleasure to purchase them for you without charging a commission for so doing

Yrs. Hc

W.B. we have given the wagon or 15 1/4 yards of linen for a wagon cover which we have charged the Mission with say 15 1/4 yds @ 17 we have nothing new here, except that the radical Party is Baltimore have sent me a circular & prospectus they have striped their mark the time. It contains some strange contradictions severe incestives and low flouting, which I despise possibly may reply to the wher I have time
