Dear

Brother through the providence of god my self and family are in good health But must Inform you that I feel disagreeably situated between you and the Mohawks in this place they have been promised a school but feel entirely disappointed they have lost all confidence in you and me I can make no more apology ~~the~~ after looking to us for help and instruction and find our promises to fail they have turned their attention to the baptist ~~as~~ six of them I am told are to be Baptized shortly

I think if you would come down shortly and bring some of the wear cloths with you we might regain their confidence if you have any regard for my feelings or the salvation of the people in this place come without delay and see us not withstand I feel myself neglected

I subscribe my self your friend and Brother in christ
