My dear & old friend — Our friends of this place have a great desire to receive a visit from you & I need not tell that such a visit would afford Margaret & myself great pleasure indeed. Do come if possible. Our next quarterly meeting will be March 30th & 31st. Come then if agreeable; but any time will suit us. If you can drop a note before you come I would like to publish at least one Sabbath beforehand. We are both well & are pleasantly situated. We had a very fine & successful meeting in last month. Now when you come.

We hope you will put up with us when you come. If not stop at Dr. Houston's I. D. Fruit & Davidsons. But come to our house we have ^{room} for man & beast. Thank God.

Yours in great love

S. F. Conrey
