Interdict the appointing power of the Bishops this was denied by the advocates of the measure that is ^{to prevent} was they using their influence by argument and moral swayson no one who voted for the measure thought of empowering an annual conference to interdict the Bishops in making out the circuits Stations & Districts; and appointing Overseers to fill them; But for those are days of Progress -ion and great developments; and some Brethren have got great light; on this Subject which has not yet reached me; and I must act under the old light; untill I am better instructed on this Subject, and I most Sincerely hope that the next General Conference will get their eyes opened to see their inconsistency and pass some positive rule on this Subject or so Explain the present one * that there will not be room for so much PS Br Simpson I think I dare to my self and many of my friends that I should express my own views on this Subject as many falls reports have gone forth on me since the Conference in that the will you in Dulge me with a place for it in the Advocate I am as ever your Br in Xt
