

Ohio Wesleyan University
Digital Commons @ OWU

Finley Letters

James B. Finley Letters

1845

Letter from J.W. Stone to James B. Finley

J.W. Stone

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters>

Recommended Citation

Stone, J.W., "Letter from J.W. Stone to James B. Finley" (1845). Finley Letters. 819.
<https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters/819>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James B. Finley Letters at Digital Commons @ OWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Finley Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ OWU. For more information, please contact earutigl@owu.edu.

Newark Licking Co Ohio

Rev James B. Finley
Putnam. Ohio

In care of Mrs Stone

17
7
12/11
5/18/11
Rev J. B. Finley

My dear Bro Finley I have just returned from church, (10 O'clock) and feel much faded. but as you no doubt, are anxious to hear from us, I have concluded to write you a line. Since you left us we have had meeting every night, but two, sometimes I have been rather disengaged. not that ~~cause~~ we have no signs of revival, but on seeing the backwardness of the members of the church, I have felt plainly with them. and I am happy to inform you that they are coming up to the "help of the Lord against the mighty." and victory is beginning to turn on our side. Thirty have joined, and the prospect is quite flattering; much better than it has been at any one time since the commencement of the meeting, several have professed religion, we expect to protract the meeting just as long as there is a prospect of getting souls converted should it be till next conference. I hope you will pray for us. Bro Heath is with us, he will leave on tomorrow morning. Your labours during our Quarterly meeting will long be remembered. May God continue to bless them.

I thought when you left my house I should make my arrangements to be in Putnam. On Monday of your Quarterly meeting, but I think it will not do for me to bear my wrath. As respects the settlement between myself and the stewards of Putnam, I know ^{not} what to say. I am disposed to be reasonable, and would not push the matter farther than what is necessary to have justice done me in the case.

With those brethren I spent two years quite pleasantly, and would not for twice the amount, suffer in my mind again, what I have suffered in consequence of the treatment I received on leaving them. I think I acted honorably with them, and did for them more than they could ask of me.

I am not disposed to trouble you with my ~~affairs~~ affairs, as you have much to attend to, but if this matter can be settled, I shall receive it as a great favour, and I think it can be done without my presence. Mr Chandler is acquainted with the most of the particulars in the case, and I suppose he will have no objection to do for me what he thinks is right.
If you could see him perhaps, you would then know what course to pursue.

If the steward attempt to justify themselves in appropriating a part of my Quarterly to the payment of house rent, on the ground that house rent and Quarterly were collected together, you can tell them that such was not the arrangement. An arrangement was made to collect it so as not to interfere with the quarterly. and when we were likely to fail in raising the amount, the leaders and stewards (present at the meeting when the arrangement was made) agreed to assume the payment of $5.00 and some cents, each; and in case we failed to raise it we would pay it

At difference & expense our oaths. I was one of the number and they held me to the contract, and as I promised to pay the amount, they took it out of my Quartrage, Brown Bro Bucking^{ham} threw of $10.00 and some of which a deduction was made on the amount I agreed to pay. Bro Moon paid his, and Bro Brown (and I think fifty dollars) and perhaps others, but this is a matter with which they are all acquainted.

I wish you to question ^{them} in regard to this matter and if nothing more can be done please send me their statement ~~in support of it or the~~.

I also wish you to ask them how much money remains to be collected on the subscription taken at quarterly meetings, and if they intend to collect it for me. Or in a word ask them if they intend to give me any thing more; and if so, when shall I receive it? but if not; you will advise me what course to pursue.

N.B. Please advise the way & place

I hope Bro. Dinky, if they do not write to me you will get Bro. Chandler to ~~invite~~, and give me all the particulars. and if he declines you will do me a kindness to send me a line.
if you should find time enough to appropriate to that purpose.

You will make what disposition of this letter you may see proper, I intend it for your self, that you may have some clue to the subject.

I should have given more particulars, but you will remember what I told you when you were at my house.

'I must close'. My love to all the Borthens.

In great haste

N.B. Bro. Stafford joined Church.

I remain yours most affectionately
John B. G.