Is that little work "On Salvation By Christ" to be had? I remember correctly it was published, last by you. If it can be had I would like to have a dozen or more copies. We are on the foundation of religion is, suffering in this region, from that terrible, &c. - that doctrine that denies the vicarious sufferings of Christ - more than any place I know of. Antianism, in the form of Unitarianism, & Free Lightism rages here fearfully, & is becoming more bitter in its manifestations, what it is, infidity, every day & waxes more bold as we treat it with silence. I think Salvation by thin-lock would do good in this community.

Yours &c

D. H. Sargent.
