Dear Brother,

The above is a bill of 3 boxes of books which we yesterday shipped for Philadelphia to be sent on to you. Hope they may arrive safe and meet with ready sale. We have an edition of the doctrinal Tracts nearly done printing, and Benson's Sermons and Putcliffes Introduction to Christianity (an excellent work) now in press. You will do well to order from time the kind and quantity of books which are needed on your District.

We duly received yours of the 10 of March inclosing a $50. Bill and we feel thankful to you for your attention to our business. We approve of your caution not to sell books for any other than good Notes - the contrary conduct has

We pray that the great head of the Church may prosper your labours in his Vineyard, and make you and your fellow labourers in the kingdom and patience of Jesus, instrumental in bringing many precious souls to the full enjoyment of the privileges and blessings of the gospel -

Yrs. with Christian love
