Cincinnati O. Nov. 17th. 1846

Dear bro. Finley

Bro. Swarnstedt earnestly desires that the meeting of the Back Committee should be on wednesday the 27th of January. Of this time, in the place of the 20th does not suit you, please drop me a line forthwith; but in the absence of any information from you we will give the notice in next week's paper, for the 27th of January.

I will, God willing, next week, pay my regards to Wm. L. Sauls. If you have any thing to say, you may then say it; yet I doubt whether it is worth while; as his letters are working death to himself in the south.

Rev. J. B. Finley.

Yours affectionately

C. Ellen
