Dear Sir

Herewith we send Box of Books for the Convicts - the promise of packing & sending has been long delayed by a constant pressure of engagements. We have put in a number of second hand School Books - sent to us as paper stock, we do not know whether they will be acceptable or not - if you should think them useful and wish any more of them we could select from those we have on hand those in best condition. In the Box we have put a small parcel for Miss Welles, which please deliver, you will readily find her residence on High Street, north of Broad Street.

Respectfully Yours,
Putnam & Brother
