Dear Brother,

We recommend that a suitable book be procured to receive the names of Subscribers in each Circuit and Station, and when the preacher in charge leaves the C^t or station, let him lodge the book with One of the Stewards for the next preacher who may have charge of that station; Some such course we conceive to be necessary in order to prevent confusion in the business.

We have just published Benson's Sermons, Sutcliffe's Introduction, and the doctrinal Tracts have been out some time. We are now publishing Hymn books, Causes, evils, and cures of heart & Church divisions.

We are Dear Bro. Yours &c

J. Soule & T. Mason
