Brother Finley —

It may be necessary for me to say, by way of explanation, that we do not sell Sunday school books to ordinary purchasers on credit, any lower than we do other books. When we sell for cash, or to Sabbath Schools by the doz. or hundred, we then sell at the prices mentioned in the Youth's Guardian — and which are mentioned also in some numbers of the Magazine.
 I have, therefore, charged the Sunday School books as I have the others, and when sold at the reduced prices, you must necessarily have an account kept of such sales & discount, that it may be allowed in your credit, at settlement.

I have supplied as many ^{books}, perhaps, as may be necessary for your district until after Gen. Conf. — and you can then receive more. — Ever Yours in Christ. —

In great haste — M. Ruter.

N.B. I send you 2 boxes to Urbana and one to Dayton. — You will find a bill in each box. —

For
any service
