Dear Sir

At the suggestion of Mr. Thichland our board have granted 100 large print Bibles for the use of prisoners in the Ohio Penitentiary. Mr. Thichland in his letter to us does not give your name. He simply speaks of you as preferring the request as the Chaplain. Having recently sent books to your place for the Franklin Co. P. S. I have thought it best to give you by the same address. The books have been put up in a box marked with the address of Whitney & Huntington and forwarded by the New York & Ohio line.

Yours
J. W. C. Boyd
