 My dear Wm. Finley,

Being somewhat late in making my ~~expenses~~ collections I meet the expenses of Delegates to Gen. Con - I had not the opportunity to put the amt. in your hands before you left - I therefore enclose it to you at Pittsburg - From Worthington bk. O. Con. $12.00 -

I visited your interesting charge according to arrangement and "following the footsteps of my predecessor" I not only preached in the Chapel at 11, but after dining with Col. Dewey visited the Female department - In both cases I had good feelings, tolerable liberty & hope good was done. Mr. Heath made a fine impression -

We are all well - and earnestly praying for God's blessing upon the Gen. Conf.

Please acknowledge this immediately and let us know how you succeed - I must close or miss the mail

Yours in love

E. H. Field
