Dear Father Finley

I write to you at the request of a Young Methodist Brother of ours in this place who wishes to get a situation as guard in the Prison - Mr. J. Vermillion He made application some months since to Br Cox, and received some little encouragement in the way of kind words, but nothing very definite in reference to an appointment. - Bro V. is a remarkably steady and correct in his habits, industrious and saving in his business matters - He is subject to inflammatory rheumatic affections, and he therefore wishes to get at some business that will not call him out and expose him to the weather - I would be glad you would interest yourself as far as you prudently can in his behalf, and let us know if any thing occurs favorable to his getting an appointment.

In haste as ever
Yours

J. W. Hurd
