Dear Sir

Some time since Mr H. H. Case wrote to you for a copy of the record of his pardon. Having lost the one he originally got he could not vote without a copy properly authenticated. He was very sorry that you failed to procure one for him. He now requests me to write to you again on the same subject, and desire you if it is possible to get him a copy & he will defray all expenses for which I will stand good if he does not pay it. You will very much oblige Mr Case by attending to this request. He is doing very well here at this time, and working industriously.

Yours

Wm Hall
