Father Finley: D. P. July 1. 1849.

The Cholera has at length appeared in our midst, practically considerable panic among offices and men. Yesterday we had nine cases according to the report of the doctor, two of which proved fatal. Hinckle and Loring were the former was a booked in the shoe shop. The latter was an old man broken down before he came here by strong. We had several new cases last night but we trust more will terminate fatally. The hospital is full twenty at least staid there last night. How much we are to be scourged no one can tell.
Pray for us. In haste

Truly yours,
Sincerely
