O. P. Dec. 13. 1849.

Father Finley.

Dear Friend: We have not heard from you since you last visited this City. and it seems strange that you have neglected to write to us so long. I write at this time to give you an invitation to make us a visit soon. We should all be glad to see you. The legislature is in session though not organized, and you will find a great many old friends here that you will be glad to see. Get into your buggy and come up. When you cross the bridge, turn up State Avenue, and you will be sure to find the ^{string} latch, and a warm reception from your old friend.
