Rev. J. P. Finley

Dear Sir, The Taunton Pair,

Sons Temperance, No 110, purpose having a jubilee on the 22^d inst.; and as a committee of arrangement the undersigned respectfully solicit the favor of an address from you on that occasion.

We are the more ~~anxious~~ urgent in making this request on account of the influence your well known name and character will be likely to have in overcoming prejudices and repelling oppositions which prevail to a considerable extent in the neighborhood arround us arising chiefly from the scarcity of our deliberations.

An early reply will much oblige

Yours Obedt Servt
